

Life in World War Two

Diamond Nine

Imagine you are a Government official and you have been asked to put in place some precautions before the war that is coming.

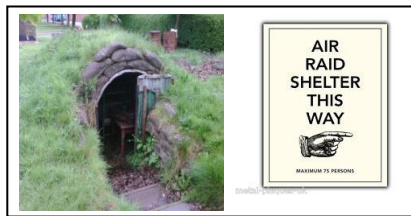

You are expecting bombing and gas attacks.

Look at the different cards below and decide which ones you think are least and most important for people's safety.

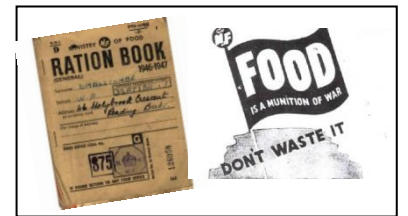

Arrange them in your diamond nine starting with those you think would be least important.

Evacuation of children

Issue Anderson Shelters

Food Rationing

Keep people informed

Gas masks issued

Encourage people to grow their own food

Keeping people cheery

Blackout!

Clothes rationing
